

1                   IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2                   FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

3                   ANGEL DAVID MORALES-VALLELLANES

4                   Plaintiff

5                   v.

6                   UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE, et. al.

7                   Defendants

CIVIL NO. 97-2459 (JAG)

8                   MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS AND ORDER

9
10                  A discovery conference was held today before the undersigned upon the parties' request.
11 Plaintiff was represented by attorney Miguel Miranda-Gutiérrez. Defendant was represented by 12 AUSA Fidel Sevillano Del Río.

13                  The Court, upon hearing from both counsel, shall allow the depositions of: (i) Carmen Rosa
14 and Frank Girau, limited to the three (3) issues discussed in the Court of Appeals' opinion.

15                  As to the other witnesses not announced by defendant (Ron Baraga, William Morales, 16 Eliezer Baez, Cándido López, John Malavé and Pedro Reyes), the Court orders the plaintiff to 17 subpoena the same no later than April 30, 2004. The Government shall then move to quash the 18 subpoenas (if no warranted) within thirty (30) days.

19                  The parties have consented to the undersigned's jurisdiction and accordingly executed a
20 consent form.

21                  The Court further extended the discovery deadline by sixty (60) days. Dispositive motions
22 shall be filed thirty (30) days thereafter.

23                  SO ORDERED.

24                  In San Juan, Puerto Rico this 19th day of April, 2004.

25
26
27                  S/Gustavo A. Gelpí
28                  GUSTAVO A. GELPI
                     United States Magistrate-Judge